ROSSONIAN

ROSSONIAN 1958

VOLUME 19

Ross Township School
Hamilton, Ohio

EDITORS' MESSAGE

We, Beverly Abel and John Evans, co-editors of the 1958 Rossonian, proudly present the 1958 annual—a picture recorded in words and photographs of the activities of the teaching staff and students. This volume did not just appear, bound and ready for delivery. No, many long hours were spent in hard work to prepare this publication.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the faculty members who have aided us in the publication, the staff members who donated time and energy, and the advertisers who helped finance us. Without these people the 1958 Rossonian could not have been published.

Beverly J. Abel John M. Evans

DEDICATION

With the realization that we are still very young in heart and experience; with the knowledge that with their counsel there is yet peace and love, and a deeper, calmer faith for us to seek; we gratefully dedicate this, the 1958 Rossonian, to our Mothers and Fathers.

HAMILTON, OHIO

Dear Readers:

Ross School has enjoyed one of the best years of its existence. A building program was in progress throughout most of the year, however, which handicapped movement through the building at various times. Excellent cooperation was shown by pupils and teachers during this inconvenience.

The completion of the additions to the building has provided excellent music facilities for all grades. It is hoped that many students will use the music rooms and avail themselves of the opportunity to participate in the music activities.

The addition to the auditorium-gymnasium increased the size sufficiently to accommodate more gymnasium classes and pupils. Too, more seating space became available for attendance at basketball games, plays, commencement exercises and other public functions.

Continued emphasis on improving instructions was shown by the faculty. Many faculty committees worked throughout the year to bring the courses of study up-to-date. These projects will enable the Ross School of the future to be a still better school.

It is hoped that the seniors, especially, and all students are proud to have been a part of the Ross School of 1957-1958.

Yours very truly,

F. T. Finkbine

Superintendent, Mr. Fred T. Finkbine.

Mr. and Mrs. Finkbine and son, Dale, enjoying an evening at home.

Dear Readers:

New objectives, horizons, and goals are forever ahead to spur us on to greater and fuller lives.

The objectives are beyond the horizons, and the goals we achieve are obtained by looking forward to each new horizon and the objectives we have placed there to work toward.

It is our hope here at Ross High School to help you establish sound objectives to make the horizons bright and happy and throughout your life, in some small way, to make those goals easier to reach.

The education the seniors have received, and the underclassmen are still working on, is something that cannot be taken from them. Rather, it can be added to by further schooling or vocational training.

The amount of education you obtain through life depends upon the desire you, as individuals, have to increase your knowledge.

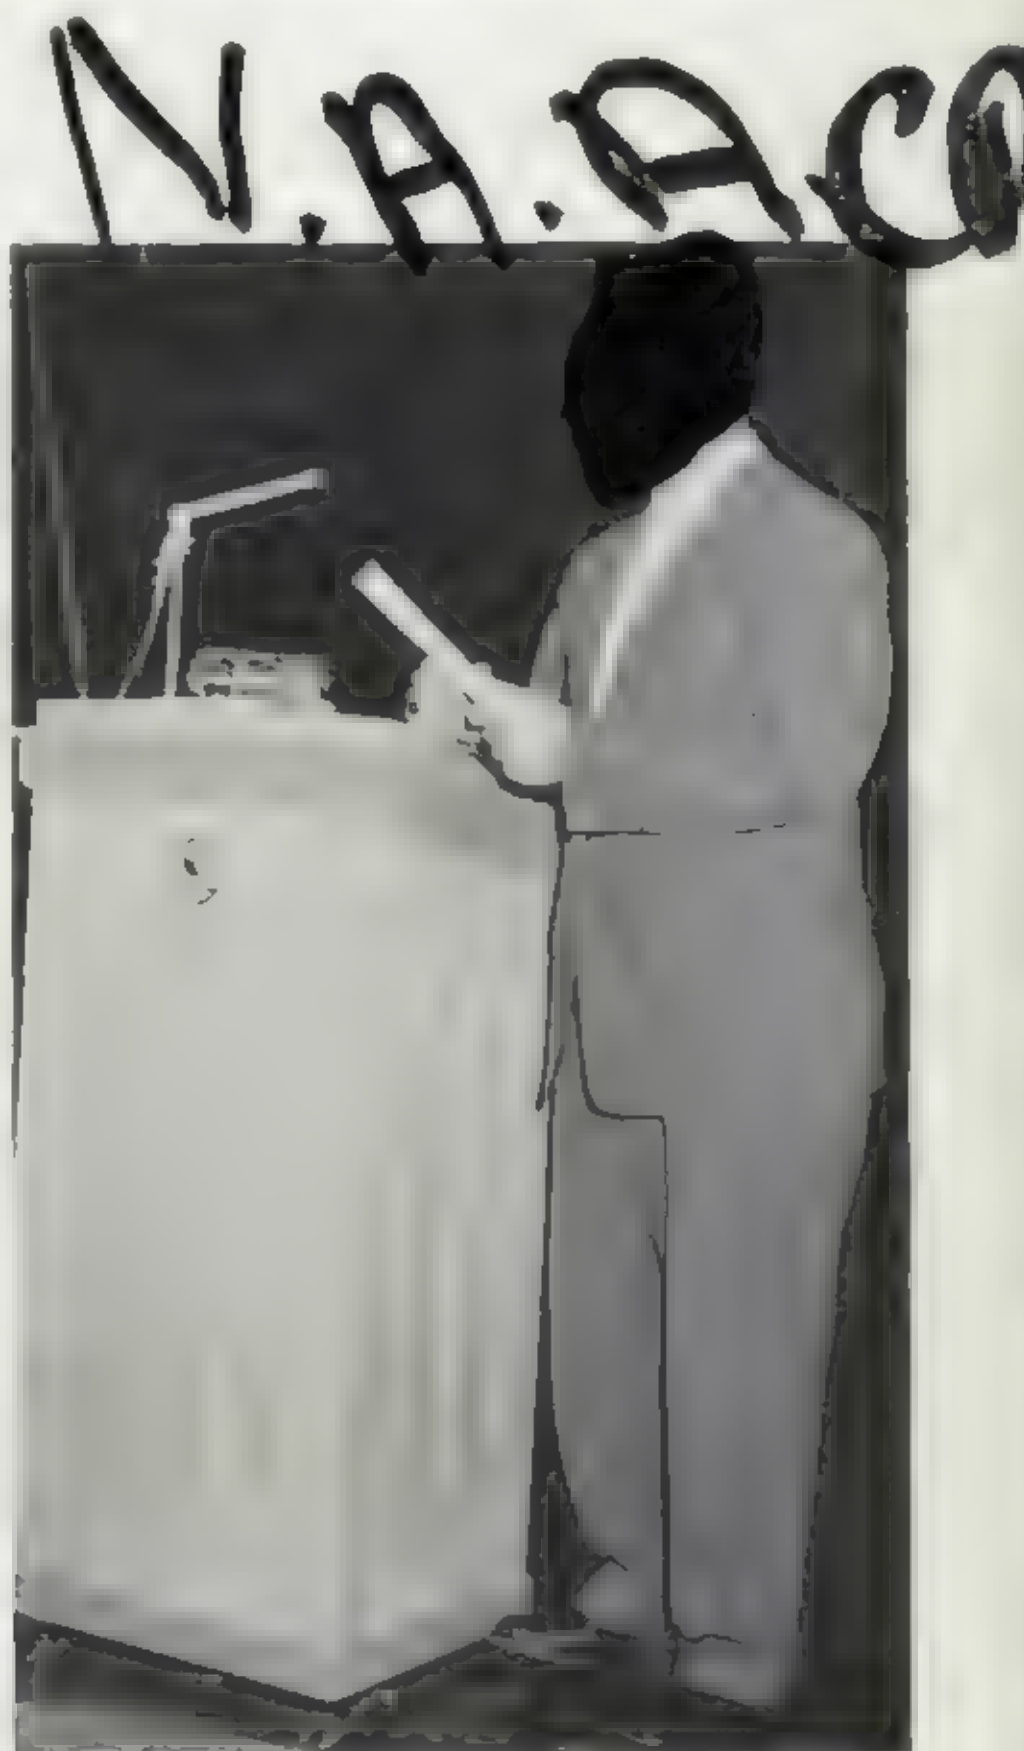

The faculty and administration hope they have stimulated your desire for further knowledge by their teaching, understanding, and guidance. We also wish the "Class of '58" bigger and better opportunities in the future, and that they will make Ross proud of them, and that they will be proud of Ross.

Very truly yours,

Vernon E. Thomas

SECRETARIES

Our school could not run smoothly if it were not for our efficient secretaries. Mrs. Ella Wright is the secretary to the superintendent, Mr. Fred Finkbine. She answers telephone calls, takes care of the school funds, takes dictation, handles correspondence, and does many other jobs without which the school could not easily run.

Mrs. Kay Jackson is the secretary to the principal, Mr. Vernon Thomas. Her job includes the many general duties that a secretary of a high school principal must perform.

We, of the Rossonian staff of 1958, wish to pay tribute to the cooks and bus drivers who have given so generously of their time and energy to provide comfort for the students.

The cooks deserve recognition for providing us with nourishing, refreshing meals.

The bus drivers rate applause for providing safe transportation for the students of Ross each morning and afternoon of the year.

Without these services, much inconvenience would be felt by all.

CUSTODIANS

Our school maintains its neat appearance through the work of our five capable janitors who give round-the-year service. To them we are grateful for a warm building, well-kept rooms and grounds. Their willingness to lend assistance to both students and teachers throughout the day is evidenced by the many jobs they do—adjusting desks, thermostats, repairing lockers, window shades, moving furniture, etc. The co-editors wish to extend their personal thanks for the many favors granted, thus enabling the staff to work after school hours.

MR. ROLLA WOOD

MR. FRANCIS JONES

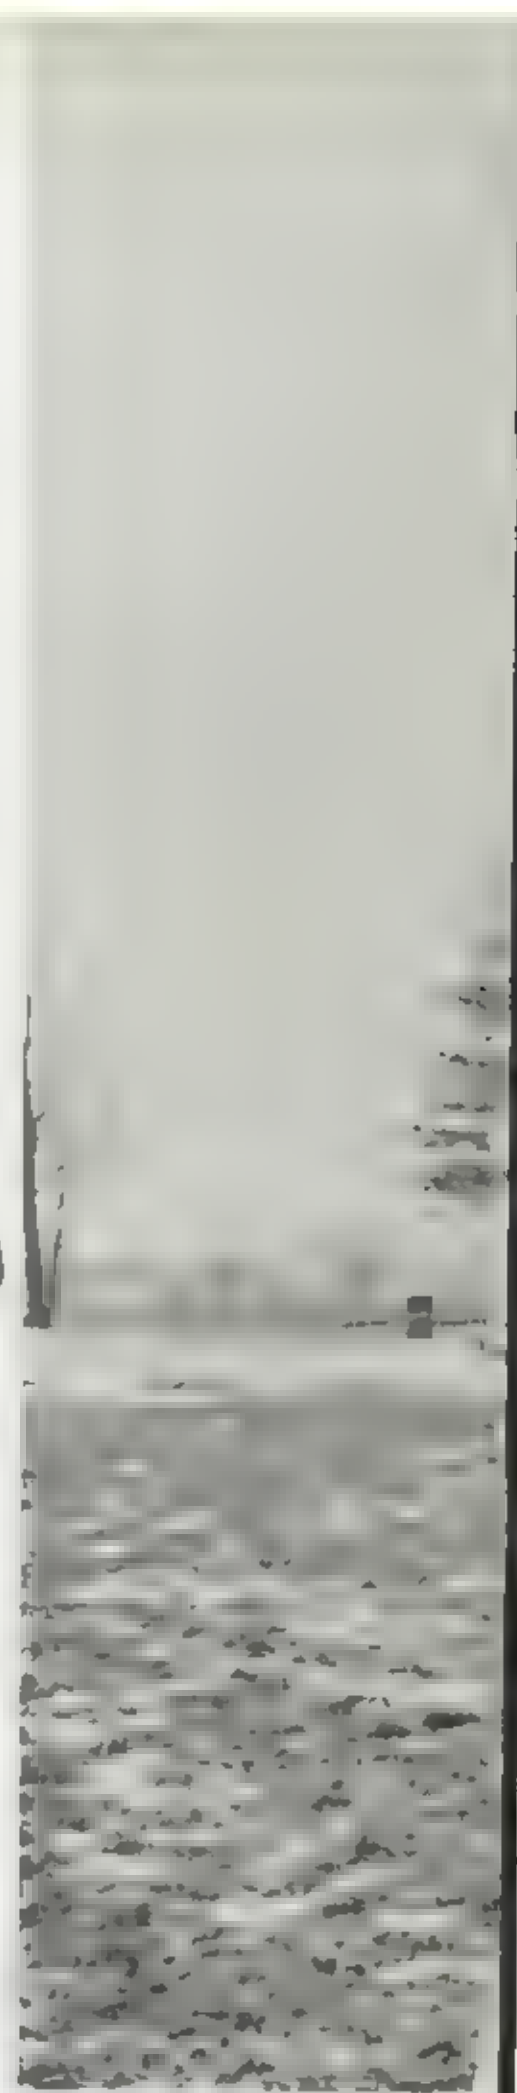

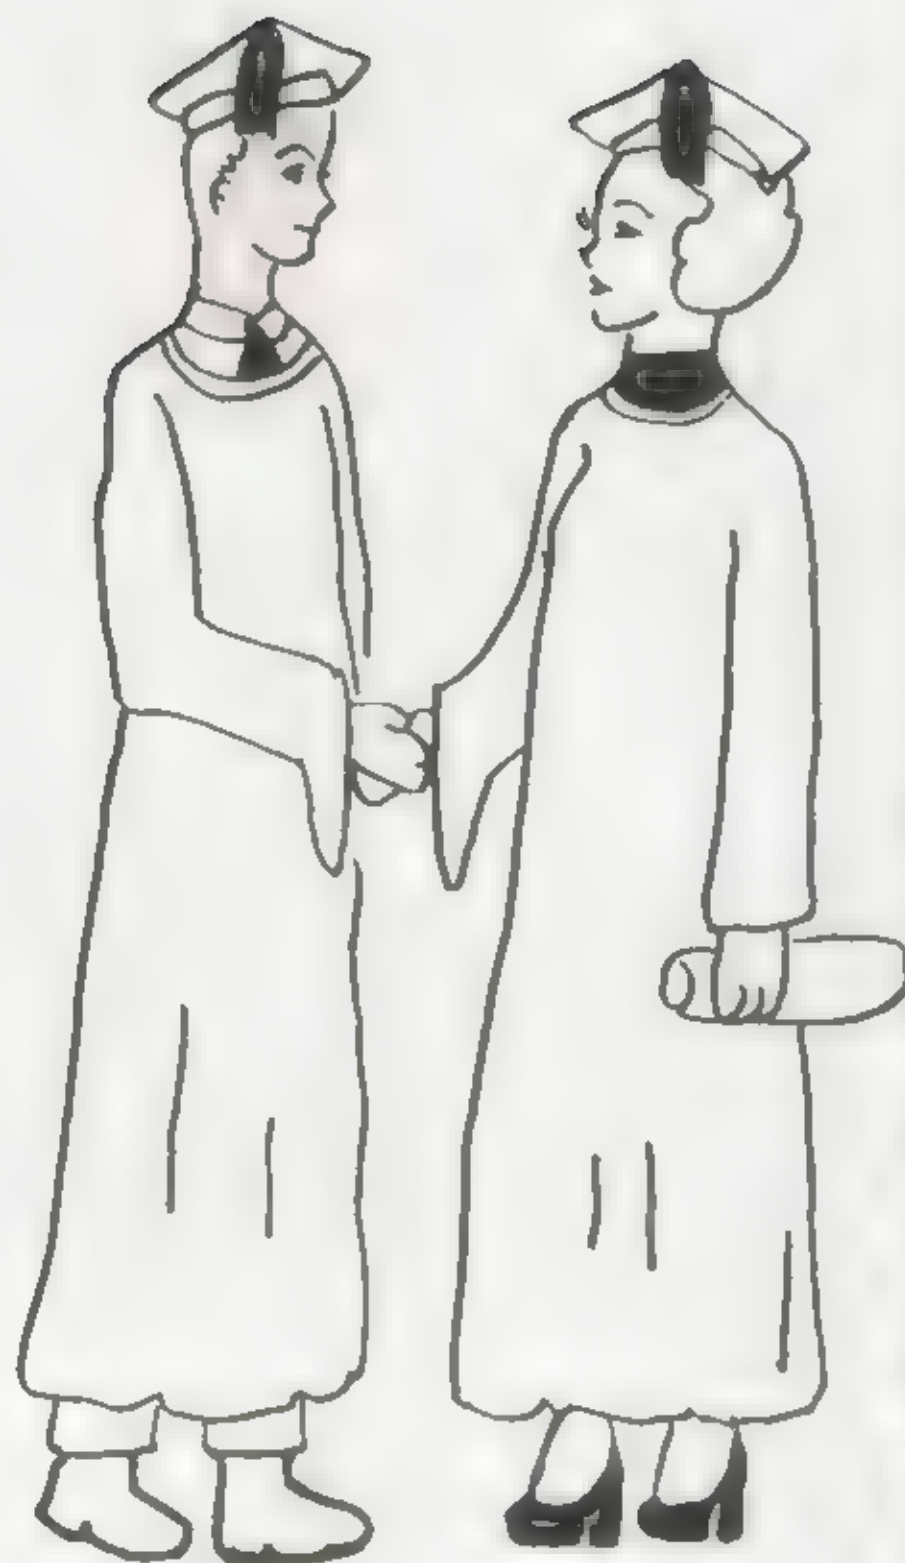

The school year of 1957-58 brought many changes to our school. The most predominant of these changes is evidenced by the new addition to the school.

This new wing provides seven badly needed classrooms, an elementary principal's office, a nurse's office, and a teachers' lounge.

For the music department, the new wing provides convenience and comfort with two practice rooms, a storage room, two music teachers' offices, and work rooms.

This new wing, completed late in the spring, provides comfort and convenience for the faculty and the students, also.

SENIORS

President
RONALD PHIPPS

We, of the Senior class, must look to the future. Four years have passed. Four years filled with memories.

Memories of hours of homework, hard work on school publications, moments of fun and laughter in and out of the classroom. We can look back on four years and know that they have been four good years. Four years which have prepared us for the future.

We can remember the thrill of our first dance, the Sophomore Sock Hop. We can point, with pride, to our Homecoming Dance. We can remember the hard work to prepare for the Junior-Senior prom and the wonderful fun enjoyed by all.

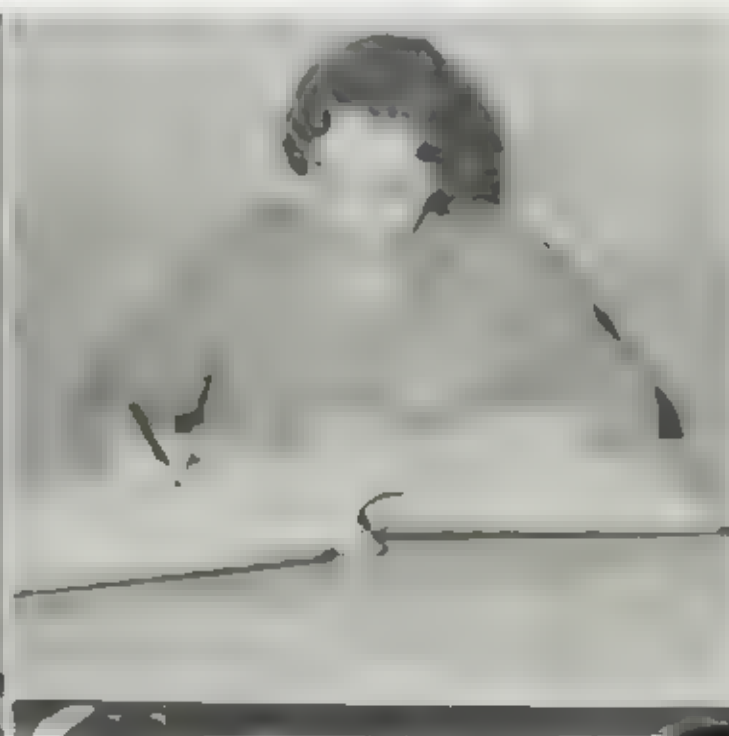

We must all remember the Junior and Senior plays, the class trip, and, more important, stepping forward to receive our diplomas.

We can indeed look back with pride upon these years of work, play, and study. We are ready to face the future and what it holds.

UNDERCLASSMEN

We, the class of '59, can say with certainty, "We shall be Seniors!" We can look forward to all of the activities and privileges of being Seniors.

But we can also look back on our activities as underclassmen. We can remember, with pride, our Homecoming Dance, our Soda Pop Hop, our addition to school spirit with the sale of shakaroos and schedule pencils, our Junior-Senior Prom, and our participation in all school activities.

After we point to all of our accomplishments, we, of the Junior class, can then turn our attention forward. Forward to our Senior year. Our Senior year when we shall have our final hours of homework, our last exams. When we shall edit our school paper and the 1959 Rossonian. When we shall cheer at our last high school football and basketball games. When we shall attend our last high school dances.

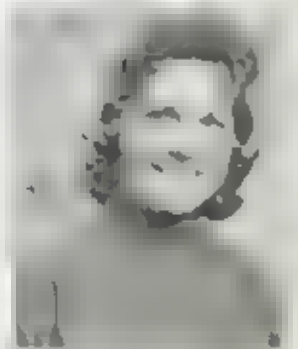

Yes, we can look forward to the time when we shall go on our class trip, receive our diplomas, and at last we are on our own. Our school days are ended. Yes, we can look to the future.

We, of the Sophomore class, have passed the halfway point of our high school days. We now look forward to our next two years with great enthusiasm.

We can look back on our last two years as we sold shakaroos, took part in clubs and other activities, and put on our first dance.

We can look forward to our other dances, our participation in more activities, our Junior and Senior plays, our Junior-Senior prom.

Yes, we of the Sophomore class have ahead of us hard work, long hours of study, and times of fun and enjoyment.

FRESHMEN

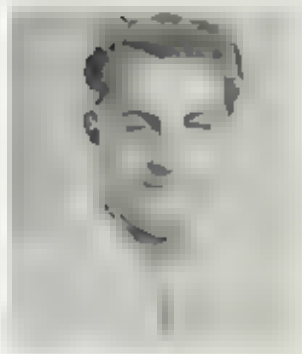

We of the Freshman class are looking toward our next three years of high school.

We have experienced our first taste of high school life, the thrill of our first grown up dance, the joy of meeting and making new friends.

We can be proud that we took advantage of the chance to be in extracurricular activities. We can be proud that we have completed a successful Freshman year.

But we can look forward to the future and what it holds.

This year, more than ever before, Ross Rays, the school newspaper, has played an important part in school life.

Every two weeks, this account of life at Ross is distributed among the students.

Sports, news of the school, and coming events fill the Ross Rays. Students look forward to the arrival of the paper eighth period on Friday. Interest in the paper and its articles is high.

This year, Ross Rays has been vastly improved. The staff and its advisor are to be commended for the good work they have done in the past and, no doubt, will continue to do in the future.

The office help and the bus patrolmen are two well-known factors at Ross. On the school bus, the bus patrolmen keep order and quiet. At school the office help aid the executives. They run errands, transfer messages, take telephone calls, and do many other jobs.

Without these two groups, more work would fall on the secretaries and bus drivers.

Added to basketball, G.A.A. offers such activities as swimming, bowling, baseball, volleyball, badminton, soccer, field ball, bound ball, and table tennis to its members.

Participating in these sports, the girls develop better mental and physical co-ordination.

Rodra Brooks shoots from the free throw line.

This strong organization gives girls of Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes an opportunity to share in activities pertaining to sports. Athletic-minded girls can find here an outlet for their energy.

Members of the girls' varsity team watch the game intently

Girls who do not like all athletics can find here at least one new game that they can enjoy with the other girls.

The Girls' Athletic Association teaches girls the value of team work, sportsmanship, and school spirit. Here the girls have an opportunity to take part in friendly competition.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America is an organization in which many students take part.

Movies were shown to the student body with the cooperation of the F.T.A.

Five members of the F.T.A. were invited to a Christmas party sponsored by members of the Hamilton High School F.T.A.

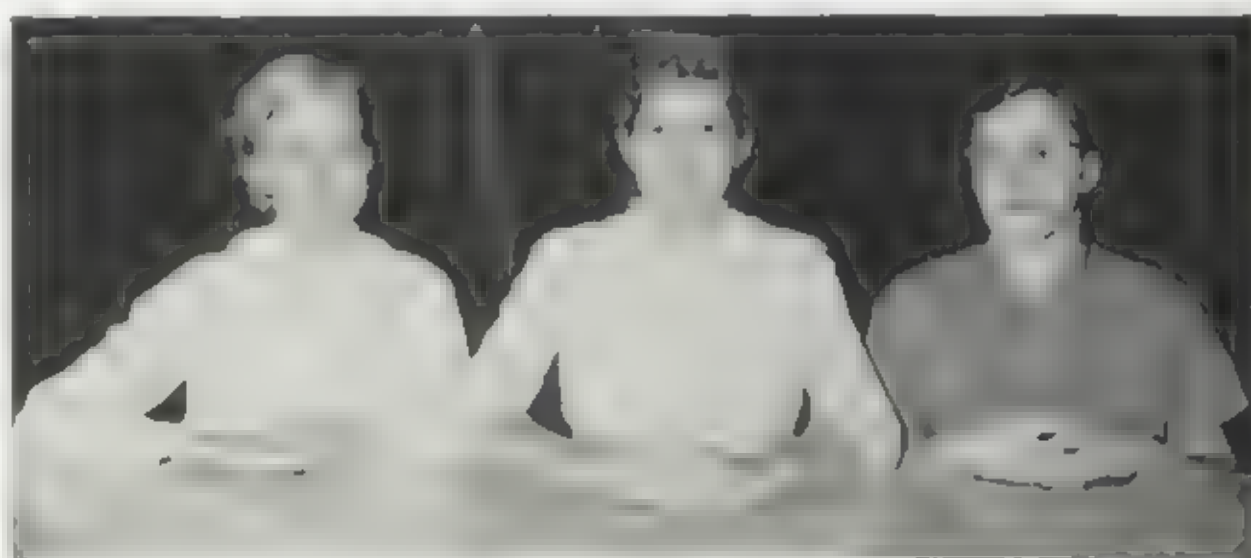

An annual spring trip to Miami University, in Oxford, Ohio is something looked forward to by everyone in F.T.A.

PEP CLUB

Newly formed this year, the Ross Pep Club was for the purpose of adding to the representation at games and to generate school spirit. Members of the Pep Club were on hand at all football and basketball games. Following the lead of the cheerleaders, the voices of the Ram-Peps could be heard above most others at each game.

The sincere efforts to cheer the players to victory earned a great deal of praise for the members of the club. During the year, the Pep Club was responsible for arranging transportation to a number of the games and enabling students to attend games held away from home.

The whole school appreciates what this organization has done to add to a good year.

ROSS

Clad in maroon and gold uniforms, our band made a striking appearance at football games, the Butler County Fair, at home basketball games, and on U.C. Day at the University of Cincinnati. Boasting a membership of 44, they have gained a reputation both as a marching and a concert band.

BAND

Throughout the year, the band participated in two successful fund-raising activities—the third annual Tag Day, and the second candy sale.

Directed by Mr. Thomas Buchanan and sponsored by the Band Parents Club, the Ross Band is one of the biggest and most active groups in which students of all ages participate.

Ross Band members participate in annual Tag Day.

The Mixed Chorus plays a vital part in the musical life at Ross. Eighty-four boys and girls in grades nine through 12 compose the group. They have represented the school at several contests throughout the area.

During the past year, the chorus participated in various school programs, including the Y-Teen Christmas Pageant and Baccalaureate. In the spring, the group sponsored a very successful and entertaining minstrel.

Belonging to Mixed Chorus gives a student access to good music, as well as to the enjoyment that comes from singing with others.

Dan Thompson jumps for ball

Ross has experienced one of the best years of its history in basketball. The Rams may well be proud of their fine record. Though Coach Vernon Thomas was promoted to the office of principal this year, it has in no way hindered his coaching ability.

TEAMS IN ACTION

John Brannon tries for tip-off in reserve game

Credit should be given to Coach Eugene Rice and his Reserve team for their splendid record during the year. Losing only 1 game, the Lambs show promise of being future Rams

The basketball teams of 1957-1958 have set a precedence in sportsmanship and ability for all Ram teams to come.
